CONFESSION & FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the Father, ☩ Son, and Holy Spirit – the one God who pours love into our hearts and healing upon the earth. Amen.

Confident that God justifies us by grace through faith, let us confess our sin.

You may KNEEL or remain as you are. Silence is kept for reflection.

Compassionate God, we confess that we struggle to embody your goodness in the world and in our own hearts. Creation groans from overuse. Jealousy and bitterness strain our relationships. Indifference keeps us from seeking justice. Divisions disrupt your call to show genuine love to others. Turn our hearts back to you. Restore our world and reconcile us to one another. Renew us to live as your holy people, following the way of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Hear this good news: We have peace with God through Jesus Christ, in whom there is no condemnation, but only forgiveness and the promise of everlasting life. Receive ☩ freely this healing gift of grace. Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING: Jonah 3:10—4:11

¹⁰ When God saw what [the people of Ninevah] did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them, and he did not do it.

^{4:1} But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. ² He prayed to the LORD and said, “O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning, for I knew that you are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from punishment. ³ And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.” ⁴ And the LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?” ⁵ Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

⁶ The LORD God appointed a bush and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort, so Jonah was very happy about the bush. ⁷ But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. ⁸ When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹ But God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?” And he said, “Yes, angry enough to die.” ¹⁰ Then the LORD said, “You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹ And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 145:1-8 spoken responsively between leader and congregation

- ¹ I will exalt you, my ¹ God and king, and bless your name forev- ¹ er and ever.
- ² Every day ¹ will I bless you and praise your name forev- ¹ er and ever.
- ³ Great is the LORD and greatly ¹ to be praised!
There is no end ¹ to your greatness.
- ⁴ One generation shall praise your works ¹ to another and shall de- ¹ clare your power.
- ⁵ I will speak of the glorious splendor ¹ of your majesty and all your ¹ marvelous works.
- ⁶ They shall tell of the might of your ¹ wondrous acts, and I will re- ¹ count your greatness.
- ⁷ They shall publish the remembrance of ¹ your great goodness;
they shall sing joyfully ¹ of your righteousness.
- ⁸ The LORD is gracious and full ¹ of compassion,
slow to anger and abounding in ¹ steadfast love.

GOSPEL: Matthew 20:1-16

A reading from the Holy Gospel... according to the apostle Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ¹ “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. ² After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³ When he went out about nine o’clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace, ⁴ and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went. ⁵ When he went out again about noon and about three o’clock, he did the same. ⁶ And about five o’clock he went out and found others standing around, and he said to them, ‘Why are you standing here idle all day?’ ⁷ They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’ ⁸ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.’ ⁹ When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received a denarius. ¹⁰ Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received a denarius. ¹¹ And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, ¹² saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’ ¹³ But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius? ¹⁴ Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. ¹⁵ Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’ ¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Adult Forum Returns with "Jonah — A Show About Nothing (and Everything)"

Join Pastor Brian this morning as we kick off our new Adult Education season with a fresh look at the Book of Jonah — yes, the one with the fish. If you've ever loved a sitcom where nobody learns their lesson and nobody really changes, you'll recognize Jonah immediately. Through the lens of Seinfeld's famous "show about nothing," we'll dig into a story that's really about everything: mercy, resentment, and who gets to be inside the circle of God's grace. Come with questions, leave with more — no tidy endings guaranteed!

Choirs are Back!

Choirs resumed rehearsals last week, but there's still time for you to join! Voice Choir meets at 4:15PM and Bell Choir meets at 6:00PM. If you can carry a tune at all (you don't need to sing solo or even read music), the chancel choir would love to welcome you! Interested? Call Carol Kugler at 618-581-3079.

Chili Cook-Off Help Wanted!

'Tis the season! Belleville's annual Chili Cook-Off will be Friday, October 9 and Saturday, October 10. The production and sale of St. George's chili benefits both congregations, and volunteers are needed to make this event a success. Tentative plans are to make and sell at least 200 gallons of White Chili this year.

Preparation begins next week! Chicken cooking is scheduled 9:00AM-3:00PM on Wednesdays September 23, 30 and October 7. Each cooking day needs two three-hour shifts of two people to accomplish the grinding, cooking and bagging of the cooked chicken.

The signup sheet for helping with the Chicken Cooking is in the Parish Hall on the wall opposite the stairs.

Church Picnic NEXT SUNDAY

After the weather put a damper on our pool party but still wanting to have an outdoor church event, we have pivoted back to a church picnic, which will be NEXT Sunday, September 27 from noon to 3pm at Schranz Memorial Park in Swansea. Format will be as in years past: bring food enough for you and your family, and a game to share!

Change to Franklin School Lunch Packing

Normally at this time of year we would be recruiting volunteers and soliciting donations for packing lunches for children in particular need at Franklin elementary school. However, we were contacted by the principal at Franklin to say that their needs have changed, and while they very much have appreciated our efforts to provide nutritious meals over holiday weekends, they will not be participating in the sack lunch program this year. They would like to find some other way to partner with us, so keep an eye on this space for more information. And, THANK YOU all for what you've done to support this program for many years!

School Supply Drive Thank You Note

St. Mark received a thank you note from Franklin School. You can see it on the bulletin board in the welcome area by the calendar.

Thank you so much for your continued support and supplies for our kids. Your donations and love are always valued and appreciated. - Franklin School
